According to the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI), mental illnesses are medical conditions that disrupt a person's thinking, feeling, mood, ability to relate to others, and daily functioning. Mental illnesses are medical conditions that often result in a lowered capacity for coping with the ordinary demands of life.

There are many types of mental illnesses, which may include:

- Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
- Bipolar Disorder
- Dissociative Disorder
- Eating Disorders
- Major Depression
- Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD)
- Panic Disorder
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)
- Schizophrenia
- Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD)

Some Triggers of Mental Illness

There are many factors that could contribute to the way you are feeling; such as stress, health conditions, and loss of a loved one.

These factors can have a profound impact on your mental state, including symptoms of:

- Anger
- Anxiety

- Depression
- Feeling overwhelmed
- Fear
- Guilt
- Irritability
- Nightmares
- Panic

Regardless of your symptoms, it's important you know help is available and you are not alone. Research indicates about one in four U.S. adults has a diagnosable mental illness, yet less than half of them receive any treatment for it.

We understand how important it is to find the right solutions for a balanced and healthy life. Let us help.
